

MODULAR ISLAND CEILING

The Modular Island Ceiling has a fully-welded aluminum frame with proportionally sized panels. Panels may be faced with laminate or stainless steel. Actual ceiling design and lighting requirements are dependent on the size of your elevator cab and emergency exit placement. Rectangular and square panels may be used to adapt to the unique needs of each elevator interior. Our powder-coating process ensures a durable finish.

Standard Powder-Coat Color Options

Aluminum

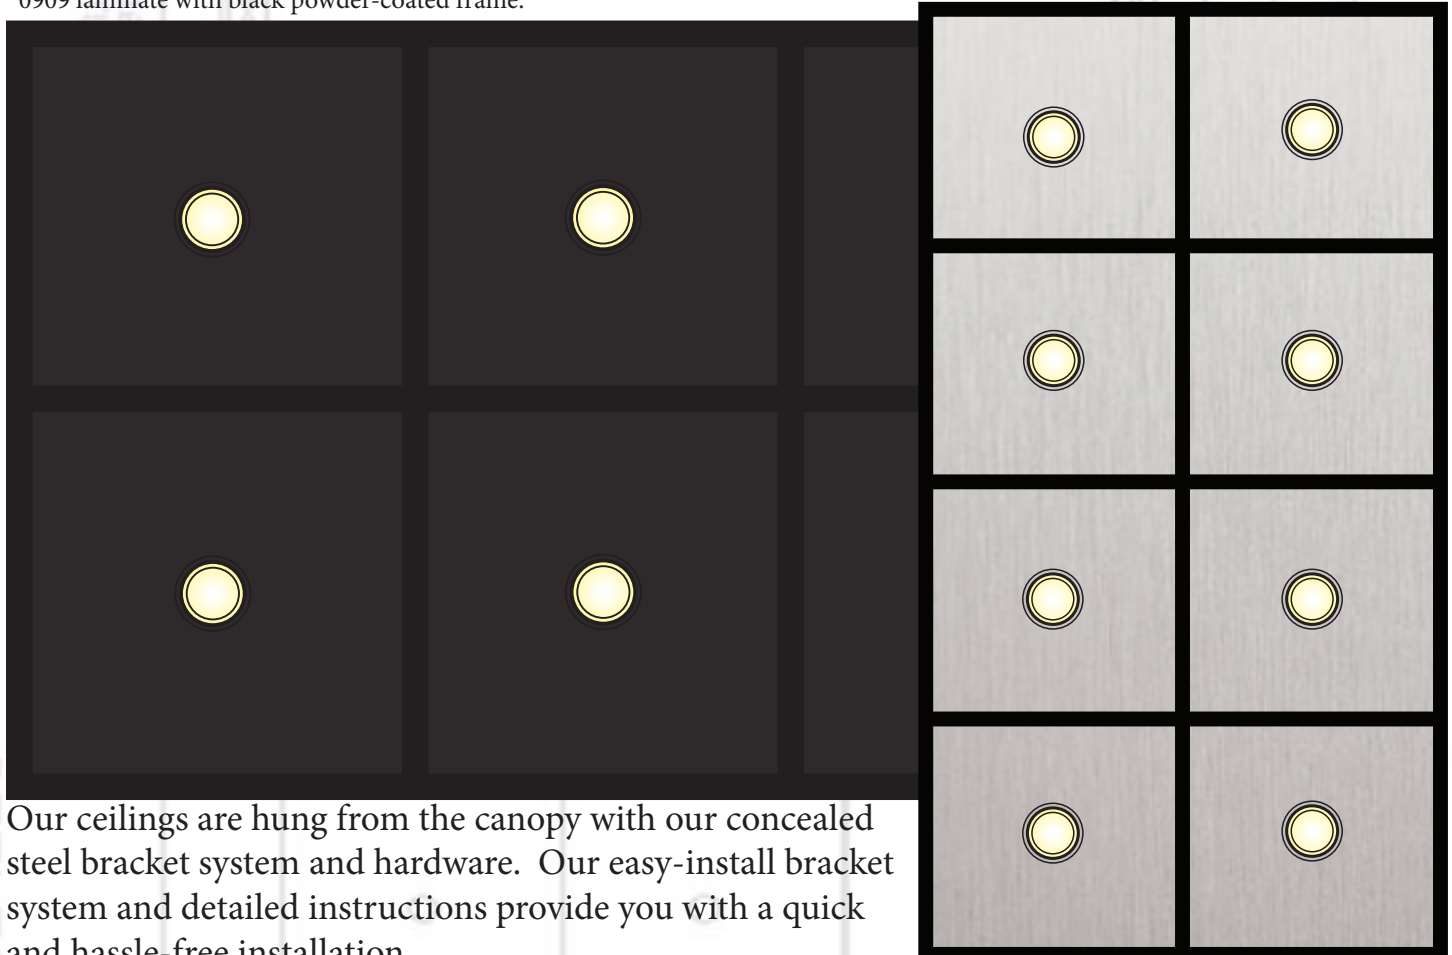

Black

Bronze

Artistic Rendering. Modular Island Ceiling faced with Formica® Black 0909 laminate with black powder-coated frame.

Our ceilings are hung from the canopy with our concealed steel bracket system and hardware. Our easy-install bracket system and detailed instructions provide you with a quick and hassle-free installation.

Artistic Rendering. Modular Island Ceiling faced with stainless steel with black powder-coated frame.

The Difference is in the Details